To Whom It May Concern:

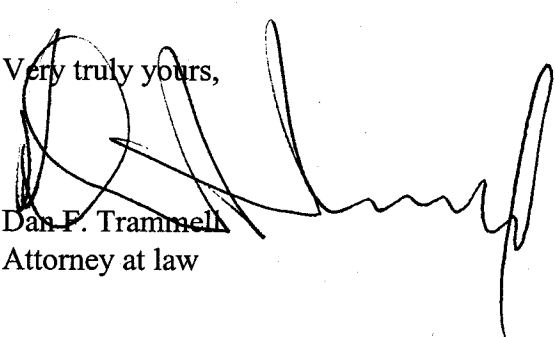

Regarding: Raymond J. Friedman, M.D., Ph.D., Q.M.E.

I've known Dr. Friedman for more than twenty years. During that time, I have used his services as an expert witness on numerous occasions, primarily in the field of workers;' compensation claims. Dr. Friedman is an excellent forensic evaluator and he enjoys an excellent reputation with attorneys on both sides of the aisle and, perhaps more importantly, with the judges.

I have continued to seek out Dr. Friedman's advice and expertise over the years because of his complete command of forensic psychiatry, his high ethical standards, and his ability to clearly explain the medical issues.

In addition to his medical expertise, Dr. Friedman is also very personable. He is a gentleman. Obviously, his demeanor, his communication skills, the way he conducts himself on a personal level, all contribute to the reason why I can recommend him whole heartily.

Very truly yours,

Dan F. Trammell
